We will review each “shelf” for 2 months.

How many can you memorize from the first shelf?

And.... GO !!!!

Monday, October 19

"So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with My righteous right hand."

Isaiah 41:10

When were you very afraid? Did you feel alone and helpless? God is always there for us, no matter where we are. We are never lost from Him. The next time you are afraid, imagine Him holding you in His hands and protecting you.

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not unto your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him and He will make your paths straight."

Proverbs 3:5-6

We cannot rely on our own thoughts and feelings. We need to ask God for wisdom on how to handle our situation. If we ask Him and rely on Him, He will help us to do what He wants us to do.

Tuesday, October 20

"Listen my son, to your father's instruction and do not forsake your mother's teaching."

Proverbs 1:8

Most of us think that our parents don't know what we're going through. As hard as it is to imagine, they were your age at one time. They have gone through some of the same things that you have and they want to keep you from making the same mistakes that they have. God will bless you if you listen to your parents when they give

It is impossible for a person to lick their own elbow! (try it!)

Thursday, October 22

"Don't let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in life, in love, in faith and in purity."

1 Timothy 4:12

Have you ever had someone tell you that you are too young to do something? Yes, people who are older than you has more wisdom in a lot of ways than you, but that doesn't mean that you can't teach others. You can show others who Jesus is through how you talk, act, how you love others and Jesus, and having good morals.

Journal It

Write or draw a picture of something that you want to remember about this week's lesson.

Match each letter to a number. For example, A=1, B=2, C=3 and so on. Write the letter in the blank of the corresponding number. You will have a phrase from today's story once you are done.

This is so exciting! Now that you are forgiven and part of God's family (John 1:12), you can share your decision with others.

- Is there someone you want to tell about your decision to follow Jesus?

Following Jesus is a lifelong journey that begins with a few basic steps. Below you'll find a path with several discussion points to help guide your conversation with a child who expresses an interest in God's plan of salvation.

Once we ask Jesus to forgive us, He takes away all of our sins. Jesus saves us from the penalty for our sins. And when we trust Jesus as our Savior, we become part of God's family forever (1 John 5:11-12). Because we are part of God's family, we should live in a way that pleases Him and do things that help us learn more about Him (Colossians 1:10).

- What are some ways you can learn more about Jesus?

Jesus didn't stay dead. The Bible tells us that He rose from the dead and lives today. That means we can talk to Him right now. If we believe that Jesus died on the cross to take the consequences for our sins and rose from the dead (Romans 10:9-10), we can ask God to forgive us, and He will (Colossians 1:13-14).

- Would you like to ask God to forgive you for your sins?

Jesus is God's perfect Son. Jesus died on a cross to take the consequences for our sins (John 3:16). Because Jesus died for us, God forgives our sins.

- Do you believe that Jesus died on the cross to forgive your sins?

The Bible says that our sin separates us from God (Romans 6:23). But God provided a way for us to connect with Him again so we can live with Him forever. We all need God's forgiveness.

- Do you want to know how to be forgiven by God?

God loves us, but He hates our sin. The Bible teaches that all people have sinned or disobeyed God (Romans 3:23).

- Where do you see sin in your own life?

How to LISTEN to a Sermon

This sheet can help you develop the skill of active listening – of thinking about what you hear and applying it to your life.

One way to listen actively to sermons is to take notes. Taking notes keeps you alert and helps you remember key thoughts. Just like anything else, if you want to get something out of a sermon, you've got to put something into it—namely, your positive attention. After all, if God wants to speak to you through a sermon, don't you want to be listening?
