

ORDER OF WORSHIP

DECEMBER 24, 2025 THE NATIVITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST

 CALL TO WORSHIP

from Isaiah 9

Minister: For to us a child is born, to us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder, and his name

shall be called:

People: Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,

Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Minister: Of the increase of his government and of peace there will be no end.

People: Jesus, our King, has come to us!

 JOY TO THE WORLD

ANTIOCH, G.F. Handel and Isaac Watts

Joy to the world the Lord is come

Let earth receive her King

Let ev'ry heart prepare him room

And heaven and nature sing

And heaven and nature sing

And heaven and heaven and nature sing

Joy to the earth the Savior reigns

Let men their songs employ

While fields and floods, rocks, hills, and plains

Repeat the sounding joy

Repeat the sounding joy

Repeat, repeat the sounding joy

No more let sins and sorrows grow

Nor thorns infest the ground

He comes to make his blessings flow

Far as the curse is found

Far as the curse is found

Far as far as the curse is found

He rules the world with truth and grace

And makes the nations prove

The glories of his righteousness

And wonders of his love

And wonders of his love

And wonders, wonders of his love

And wonders, wonders of his love

 PRAYER OF ADORATION

O God, you have caused this holy night to shine with the brightness of the true Light:

WHAT CHILD IS THIS

GREENSLEEVES, Traditional English carol

What child is this who laid to rest
On Mary's lap is sleeping
Whom angels greet with anthems sweet
While shepherds watch are keeping
This, this is Christ the King
Whom shepherds guard and angels sing
Haste, haste to bring him laud
The babe, the son of Mary

Why lies he in such mean estate
Where ox and ass are feeding
Good Christian fear, for sinners here
The silent word is pleading
Nails, spear shall pierce him through
The cross be borne for me, for you
Hail, hail the word made flesh
The babe, the son of Mary

So bring him incense, gold, and myrrh
Come peasant, King to own him
The King of Kings salvation brings
Let loving hearts enthrone him
Raise, raise the song on high
The virgin sings her lullaby
Joy, joy for Christ is born
The babe, the son of Mary

THE ADVENT CANDLES The Jo

The Johnson Family (2:30) The Cavanaugh Family (4:00) The Wells Family (5:30) The Cuenod Family (10:00)

Leader: The Advent wreath helps us remember the miracle of God's becoming a man for our sake.

The wreath is a circle, causing us to remember the eternity of God's love for us and for all humanity. It is decked with green boughs, causing us to remember the newness of life we have in Christ Jesus.

The first candle reminds us of the prophets' hope for God's salvation to come.

The second candle reminds us of Jesus' humility in coming to earth and being born in a stall.

The third candle reminds us of the joy of the shepherds as they heard the good news of Jesus' arrival.

The fourth candle reminds us of the angels' song of peace for all the earth.

People: The fifth candle reminds us of the glorious mystery of the incarnation, as we find in the Gospel of John, "The Word became flesh and dwelt among us."

Leader: So let us stand and sing as we celebrate the coming of Christ to the world.

 O COME, ALL YE FAITHFUL

Coming to Know the King

The gospel is the good news that God is restoring all things unto himself in and through Jesus Christ. The gospel speaks to the fact that Jesus Christ, as Savior and Lord, is redeeming all things unto himself, and that includes individuals who cast aside attempts to find salvation in anyone or anything else and trust in Christ alone. But why is trust in Christ necessary, and what does it mean to trust him? One way to understand this trust is through the "Five Cs" of the gospel.

Character of God

Who is God? The Bible affirms that God is loving, compassionate, and a friend of sinners. But it also affirms that he, who is one God in three persons (Father, Son and Holy Spirit) is holy, just, immense, eternal, invisible, all-powerful, incomprehensible, all knowing, and perfect in all he is and does. He is the Almighty King over all creation.

Genesis 1:1; Isaiah 6:3; Revelation 1:8; Revelation 4:1-11

Condition of Man

Who am I? We must see ourselves the way God sees us. The Bible affirms that human beings are created in the image of God; therefore, they are the crown jewel of creation, endowed with dignity and the weight of glory. However, that's only part of the story. Due to the fall of Adam, our first parent, all human beings are dead in sin, falling short of the glory of God, and are unable to do anything to merit a restored relationship with God. There is a chasm that separates us as sinners from God, and we can do nothing on our own to bridge that gap.

Genesis 1:27; Psalm 8:4-8; Isaiah 64:6; Ephesians 2:1-3

Cross of Christ

What must be done for a sinful person such as I to have a restored relationship with a holy God? God alone can provide the way, and he has – not by anything we have done but by sending his Son and our Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ. Jesus lived a life of complete obedience to his Heavenly Father, perfectly keeping the commands of God's law that we are unable to fulfill. He then took the punishment and guilt of our sins on his shoulders and put them to death by dying on the cross in our place. When Jesus died, he completed the work that had to be done to secure our salvation. Only Jesus can bridge the gap between God and us.

Romans 3:21-26; Ephesians 2:4-7; Revelation 5:9-10

Coming to Faith in Christ

How can the benefits of the cross of Christ be personally appropriated? Only by faith alone in Christ alone. Though salvation is totally of God, coming to faith in Christ, or conversion, involves us turning from autonomous independence to submissive trust in Christ alone for our acceptance before God by faith. Faith involves the entire person (intellect, emotion and will). It is not just assent to a body of propositional statements, nor an emotional moment of spiritual awareness. True faith is recognition of your sinfulness before a holy God, sorrow for your sin, and a wholesale embrace of Christ alone for your salvation. John 14:6; Romans 5:1-2; Ephesians 2:8-9

Course of Life

How then, ought a Christian to live? The Christian is one who stands in grace. And that grace will, at a heart level, produce life transformation. There is no such thing as a Christian who knows Jesus as Savior, but not as Lord and King. If you are united to Christ by faith, God has given you the gift of the Holy Spirit who leads you in sanctification (the process of God working in your life to make you more and more like Christ). The Christian is called to walk with the King and serve him gladly all the days of his life as his salvation is worked out, trusting that he who began a good work in you will carry it out unto completion. Romans 8:1-11; Philippians 1:6
