

Features of a Healthy Church

Acts 2:42-47 and Acts 4:32-35

A church that is energised by faith

A church pointing to the world

A church discerning the Spirit of God

A church that dares to do things differently

A black and white photograph showing a diverse group of people's hands clasped together in a circle, symbolizing unity and inclusivity. The hands vary in skin tone and are wearing different types of clothing, such as a suit jacket, a patterned shirt, and a lace-trimmed dress. The background is slightly blurred, focusing attention on the hands. A large, semi-transparent blue graphic element is overlaid at the bottom of the image.

A church that is inclusive -
not exclusive

A church that is focused rather than frenetic
