

No matter how dark or chaotic things get, there is hope.

No matter how dark or chaotic things get, there is hope.

When everyone is right, morality has been lost.

God doesn't save and deliver the good people; God saves and delivers because He is good,

God promised a King who would be faithful and true; and we know that King is Jesus Christ.

No matter how dark or chaotic things get, there is hope.

- 1. There is hope because God is the hero
- 2. Remember that when everyone is right morality is lost.
- 3. Strive for faithfulness to God and know that He will continue to be faithful and true to you.

No matter how dark or chaotic things get, there is hope.
