

Have you ever wondered where we get the idea that God will listen to us if we speak to Him?

Psalm 51:1-4

"1 Have mercy on me, O God, according to your steadfast love; according to your abundant mercy blot out my transgressions. 2 Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity and cleanse me from sin! 3 For I know my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me. 4 Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what is evil in your sight, so that you may be justified in your words and blameless in your judgment."

David's confidence was in the steadfast love and abundant mercy of God.

God loves you and His mercy and forgiveness are available to everyone in a covenant relationship Him through Jesus.

Though God is justified in condemning sinners because of their sin, forgiveness is offered through Jesus Christ to all who believe and follow Him with their lives by faith.

There isn't a sacrifice that you can make that will earn God's love and favor.

The only thing you can bring to God that he will not despise or turn away is brokenness; and brokenness is the one thing people try to fix on their own before they get right with God.

God loves you and His mercy and forgiveness are available to everyone in a covenant relationship Him through Jesus.
