

Life together is marked by humility

1. Humility is a sign of conversion
2. Humility cares about the righteousness of others
3. Humility places purity over pride
4. Humility loves your neighbor as yourself

Life together is shaped by the heart of God

We care enough to confront, because Jesus cared enough to be crucified.

Life together requires submission to the authority of Scripture over the church

Life together requires a commitment to one another in the church

Steps to restoration in the church

Step One: Personal and Private

Step Two: Personal and Private

Step Three: Take it to the whole family

Step Four: Dismissal from the family

5 types of sins that go directly to the family (Known, Serious, and Unrepentant)

1. Scandals and public immoralities (1 Corinthians 5:11-13)
2. Denying Christian doctrine (Galatians 1:8; 2 Timothy 2:17-21; 1 Timothy 6:35; 2 John 10)
3. Stirring up division and discord in the church (Titus 3:10)
4. Failing to provide for close relatives in need (1 Timothy 5:8)
5. Refusal to reconcile with a brother (Matthew 18:17)

Life together is marked by humility and grace

Closing thoughts:

1. You're not a detective, your family
2. You've got your own sin to focus on first.

Life together is shaped by the heart of God, and the heart of God is demonstrated through the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus.
