25 Now great crowds accompanied him, and he turned and said to them, 26 “If anyone comes to me and does not hate his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. 27 Whoever does not bear his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. 28 For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, whether he has enough to complete it? 29 Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it begin to mock him, 30 saying, ‘This man began to build and was not able to finish.’ 31 Or what king, going out to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and deliberate whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? 32 And if not, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends a delegation and asks for terms of peace. 33 So therefore, any one of you who does not renounce all that he has cannot be my disciple.

Daniel Akin: "Discipleship is not a one-time decision, but a daily choice to follow Jesus and to prioritize Him above all else."

Slide 9

"So often when my worship has dried up, it's because I haven't been fueling the fire. I haven't set aside any time to soak myself under the showers of God's revelation. Often, time is the key factor. But if we can find space to soak ourselves in God's Word, his presence, his creation and spend time with other believers, then we'll find that the revelation floods back into our lives; and our hearts will respond with a blaze of worship once more.

"Discipleship is not a hobby or a part-time pursuit. It requires everything we have, and if we are not willing to pay the price, we will never truly be disciples of Jesus Christ."—Matt Chandler

Slide 11

"The cost of discipleship is great, but the cost of non-discipleship is even greater." —Charles Spurgeon

Slide 12

Saying yes to Jesus is a complete life change. a complete abandonment of your desires for his, a complete giving up of your will, for his will, a complete surrender to the things of this world for the advancement of His kingdom.
