

Trusting in the Righteousness of God

Psalm 7

Trusting in the Righteousness of God

David turns to the Lord with his struggle rather than seeking revenge.

God's concern for justice now, and in eternity, means:

- 1. We need to pursue personal righteousness
- 2. We call what is good "good" and what is bad "bad"
- 3. We must work for the good of the poor and oppressed

Two things from Psalm 7:12-16

- 1. The judgment of God toward a wicked man is justified.
- 2. God's judgment waits for the man who does not repent.

5 Truths for Application:

- 1. Jesus was falsely accused
- 2. Jesus' righteousness is the source of your salvation.
- 3. False accusations are one of the many hurtful and effective tools of the enemy.
- 4. God knows the truth, that is the source of your comfort and conviction.
- 5. God's righteousness is the source of our praise
