

Because He came, we go.
(Matthew 1:1; 1 Timothy 1:15-17; Matthew 28:16-20)

Christmas should be Christianity on Display

Because He came, we go.

3 Unique characteristics of a Christian celebration of Christmas:

1. A Christian celebration of Christmas emphasizes that Jesus is the promised Messiah

The central character in the OT prophecies is a great King & Messiah whom God has promised will rescue His people and rule over His kingdom.

“Christ” is a title, not a name.

“When we read or hear Jesus Christ “we should be thinking Jesus the Messiah, the one God anointed to bring about our redemption.” - DA Carson

2. A Christian celebration of Christmas rejoices in the truth that Jesus came to save sinners

3. A Christian celebration of Christmas spurs the church to go and share the Gospel

Because He came, we go.

1. Who can you pray for this week?
2. Who will you share the gospel with this week?
3. Who might you invite with you to worship next week?
