

Counting the Cost and True Conversion
Matthew 25

Jesus told us to Live Ready.

Living ready is characterized by counting the cost and the evidence of true conversion

Living ready requires faith based obedience.

Living ready involves caring for one another with the right heart

Living ready is characterized by counting the cost and the evidence of true conversion

Practical Application Points:

1. The second coming of Jesus may seem delayed, but when He comes it will be swift and final.
2. You must have your own salvation, you cannot borrow someone else's faith when the end comes.
3. Focus on advancing the Kingdom of God rather than your own agenda and platform.
4. Love one another for the right reasons and in every way possible.

Living ready is characterized by counting the cost and the evidence of true conversion