

“O Timothy, guard the deposit entrusted to you. Avoid the irreverent babble and contradictions of what is falsely called “knowledge,” for by professing it some have swerved from the faith. Grace be with you.” 1 Timothy 6:20-21

The Gospel is a treasure worth devoting your whole life to proclaiming and protecting.

Getting the Gospel wrong is eternally disastrous.

The mystery of godliness is the gracious exchange of the righteousness of Jesus Christ for the sinfulness of humanity through His cross, burial, and resurrection.

Jesus + Anything = False Teaching

Anything - Jesus = False Teaching

Getting the Gospel right is an eternal blessing.

The deposit, or treasure of the Gospel, demands that you make your whole life about Jesus.

The deposit, or treasure of the Gospel, demands that the teaching of the church should be all about Jesus.

The deposit, or treasure of the Gospel, demands that we reject and avoid all attempts to distort or teach something different than the Biblical message of Jesus Christ.

Unlike the idea that you bury treasure to protect it, the church has been called to proclaim the Gospel as a means of protection.

The deposit, or treasure of the Gospel, creates a family that we belong to.

Jesus + Nothing = Everything

The church, and the Christian, are called to protect and proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ?
