

TITLE OF THE SERMON IS FATITHFUL AND TRUE: THE WORD OF THE LORD IS PURE

ROOTED READING REVIEW:

- We saw the brokenness of David's family and a cycle of sin
- We saw David's own son betray him and attempt to overthrow his kingship
- As a result, the nation of Israel started to question David and his leadership
- Ultimately, we see David (once again) experience the death of a son

PSALM TITLES FROM THIS PAST WEEK:

- A Plea for Deliverance (Chapter 13)
- Prayer for Vindication (Chapter 26)
- Prayer for a Suffering Sinner (Chapter 38)
- Thanksgiving and a Cry for Help (Chapter 40)
- Protection From Evildoers in (Chapter 64)

WE LEARN THAT GOD'S WORD IS PURE AND THAT WE CAN TRUST THAT HIS PLANS FOR US ARE BIGGER THAN THE TROUBLES AROUND US

1. KNOW AND REMEMBER YOUR PURPOSE

2 SAMUEL 19:5-7

In the moments where you haven't followed the Lord, was it because you were in the word or because you were being influenced by the world and your circumstances?

GOD'S DESIRE FOR OUR OBEDIENCE DOES NOT WAVER BASED ON OUR CIRCUMSTANCES

DAVID FULFILLS HIS PURPOSE BY TRUSTING WHAT THE LORD HAS SAID AND DONE

2. TRUST THAT GOD IS WHO HE SAYS HE IS

OTHER PSLAM TITLES FROM THIS PSAT WEEK:

- Confidence in Troubled Times (Chapter 3)
- The Refuge for the Righteous (Chapter 5)
- My Strength (Chapter 28)
- Victory in Spite of Betrayal (Chapter 41)
- Praise for God's Protection (Chapter 57)
- Security in God (Chapter 61)
- Trust in God Alone (Chapter 62)

REGARDLESS OF OUR CIRCUMSTANCES, GOD STILL SITS ON THE THRONE

2 SAMUEL 22:29-33
