

Even the most innocent man cannot stand before God

You cannot make God fit your understanding, you must grow in your understanding of who God is.

Wisdom is the result of a growing understanding of who God is.

“Nearly all wisdom we possess, that is to say, true and sound wisdom, consists of two parts: the knowledge of God and of ourselves” John Calvin

“Know God. Know yourself. Know yourself to know your need of God. Know God to know you are not gods.” Kevin DeYoung

Implications & Applications

1. Asking a sovereign God questions is not the same thing as questioning God’s sovereignty.

Trust the heart of God when you don’t understand the plans of God

2. Sound advice flows from sound theology & bad theology leads to even worse advice.

Grow in your understanding of God through His Word

3. Jesus is worthy

You can repent and be right with God too.

“The door of repentance opens into the hall of joy.” Charles Spurgeon

Remember, even the most innocent man cannot stand before God, but we stand in Christ alone.
