

Trust Jesus.

1 Corinthians 2:1-5; 15:1-58

“This day was performed the public and solemn sacrifice of a preaching doctor named Rogers, who has been burned alive because he persisted in his opinions. As he was conducted to his death, the greatest part of the people were not afraid to make him many exclamations to strengthen his courage. Even his children assisted him, comforting him in such a manner that it seemed as if Rogers was being led to a wedding.”

Faith that rests is a faith that trusts.

Trusting Jesus means believing in His crucifixion and resurrection

Trusting Jesus means abiding in God and His Word

“Abiding in Christ means allowing His Word to fill our minds, direct our wills, and transform our affections.” - Sinclair Ferguson
