

Already / Not Yet
A Study of 1 Peter

1

Biblical hope is placing your trust in a future that you know has been purchased and is secure.
Hebrews 11:1 Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen.

3

He explains the basis of their hope 1:2-4
Note God's knowledge
Note the Trinity

4

Peter wanted his reader to know that their hope was secure. It was given to them freely.
He wanted them to see what they were born again into:
To a living hope
To an inheritance

5

He lays out the benefits of their hope 1:5-9
Our hope is guarded
Our joy is unhindered

6

He shows them the privilege of their hope 1:10-12
Old Testament looked forward to it
Angels long for it

7

True hope is found in the resurrection of Jesus Christ, which assures believers of their eternal inheritance and sustains them through life's trials.
