

"The end of the matter, all has been heard, Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man." Ecclesiastes 12:3

What is the chief end of man?

1. Everything in God's creation has a purpose
2. God's created everything to bring Him glory

"There is nothing in the ordinary course of nature, throughout the whole frame of heaven and earth, which does not invite us to the contemplation of God." - John Calvin

Man was made to glorify God. (This is what it means to be made in His image.)

"Man was created from the beginning in God's image that he might image forth God's glory." - John Piper

Man was made to glorify God. (This is what it means to be made in His image.)

God's chief end is what determines man's chief end.

The chief end of man is glorify God and enjoy him forever.

"The end of the matter, all has been heard, Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man." Ecclesiastes 12:3

Jesus sums the goal of your life with two things: Love God with all that you are, and love your neighbor as yourself.

Life is found in and through Jesus Christ.
