

Part 1: Life Together is marked by humility

Part 2: Life Together is shaped by the heart of God

Life together is marked by humility and grace, because life together is shaped by the heart of God.

Part 3: Life Together is according to God's design and it impacts all of our relationships.

Life Together Part 4: Loving God more than anyone or anything

The law is not the path to salvation, it is the revelation that you need to be saved.

Jesus demonstrates the love of God through His death on the cross.

Love, not fear, is the motivation of our obedience

"It is true that the object of our love can always be detected in our behavior... (Jesus) isn't piling on the guilt or hoping we'll feel sorry for him and clean up our act. No, instead he knows that love for him is the only incentive that will stand up during trial and temptation, so he teaches us this vital relationship between love and obedience." - Elyse Fitzpatrick

Love, not fear, is the motivation of our obedience

"With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible."

The impossible is possible by the grace of God,

Jesus reveals that those who love God more than anyone or anything will receive everything.

Life together is filled with loving God more than anyone or anything
