

Song of Solomon points to Jesus, the true lover of our souls.

“In the Song of Songs they saw more than wisdom for marital living, they saw something of God’s covenantal love for his people.” - Aaron Menikoff

God uses marriage throughout the entire Bible to illustrate His relationship with us.

1. Jesus loves you
2. Jesus is committed to His bride

“God loves His children with a Never-Stopping, Never Giving Up, Unbreaking, Always and Forever Love.” - Jesus Story Book Bible

God uses our marriages to demonstrate His love in the church and to the world

3. We long to be close to Jesus

“What we want is the gentle influence of the Holy Spirit to attract us nearer to Christ; so each one cries to the Lord, “Draw me.” We are not dead; we are quickened and made alive. Our very pain and anguish, because we are not able to come to Christ as we would, prove that we are alive. I commend this prayer to you, “Lord, draw me; draw me.” - Charles Spurgeon

“If we would be fully prepared to remember Christ, we must get into this running pace: “Draw me: we will run after thee.” Be quick, my soul, be quick, about heavenly things! Creep, if thou wilt, about thy worldly business; but run after thy Lord. Oh, that we might every one attain the running pace to-night! Oh, that we might speed along towards our Lord with that strong, impetuous desire which will not let us rest till we are close to him: “Draw me, we will run after thee.” - Charles Spurgeon

Are you calling out to Christ, but not ready to go wherever He has planned to take you?

Did you know that Jesus has plans for you? Absolutely He does!

Are you ready to walk in the ways God has prepared for you?

Lay it down, cry out to Jesus, draw near to Him, and be ready to run with endurance the life that He has set up and prepared for you.
