

Bad teaching fuels bad living.

Irreligion – Indulge yourself to get what you want.

Religion – Deny yourself to get what you want.

¹You, however, must teach what is appropriate to sound doctrine.

²Teach the older men to be temperate, worthy of respect, self-controlled, and sound in faith, in love and in endurance.

³Likewise, teach the older women to be reverent in the way they live, not to be slanderers or addicted to much wine, but to teach what is good.

⁴Then they can urge the younger women to love their husbands and children

⁶Similarly, encourage the young men to be self-controlled.

Learn to control your flesh while you are young, or it will control you when you are old.

who gave himself for us to redeem us from all wickedness and to purify for himself a people that are his very own, eager to do what is good. –Titus 2:14

This is a trustworthy saying. And I want you to stress these things, so that those who have trusted in God may be careful to devote themselves to doing what is good. –Titus 3:8

⁴so that no one will malign the word of God.

⁴so that no one will malign the word of God.

⁸so that those who oppose you may be ashamed because they have nothing bad to say about us.

⁴so that no one will malign the word of God.

¹⁰so that in every way they will make the teaching about God our Savior attractive.
