JONAH

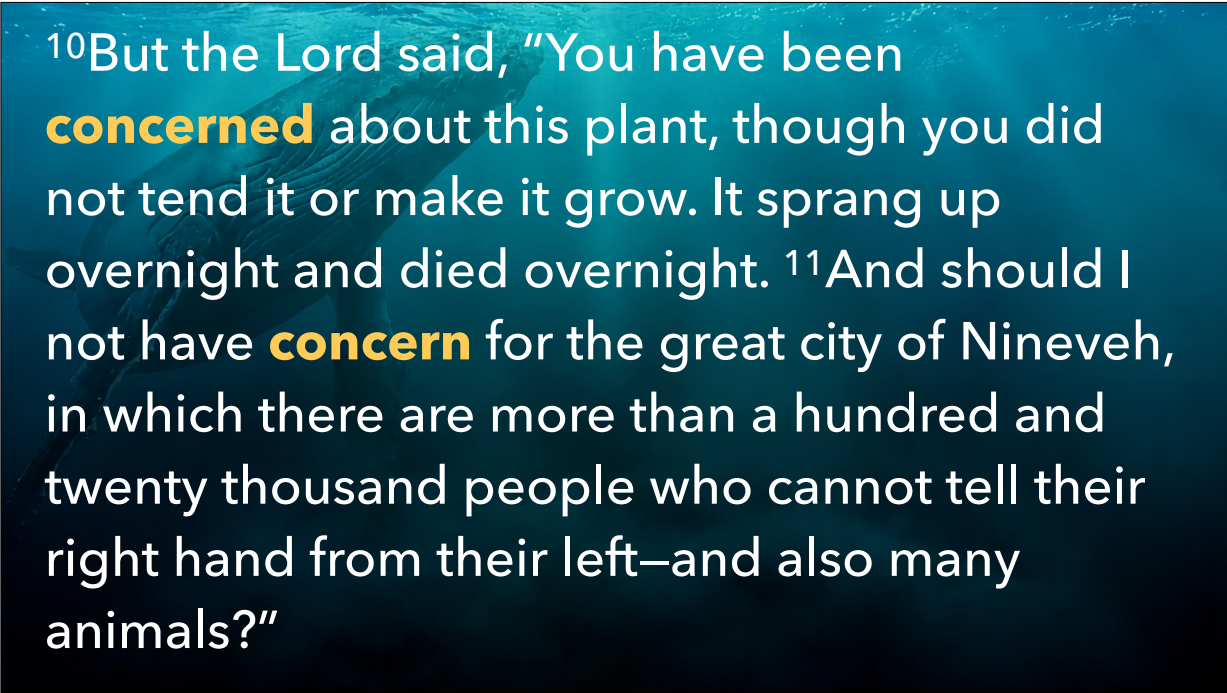

RELENTLESS GRACE

OVERVIEW

- ▶ Jonah strays (chp 1)
- ▶ Jonah prays (chp 2)
- ▶ Jonah obeys (ch 3)
- ▶ Jonah's dismay (ch 4)

God's chase reflects
God's grace.

¹But to Jonah this seemed very wrong,
and he became angry.

¹⁰But the Lord said, "You have been concerned about this plant, though you did not tend it or make it grow. It sprang up overnight and died overnight. ¹¹And should I not have concern for the great city of Nineveh, in which there are more than a hundred and twenty thousand people who cannot tell their right hand from their left—and also many animals?"

Jonah wanted to skip God's lessons, and go straight to God's blessings.

– Craig Groeschel –

It's possible to do the will of God without the feel of God.

²¹I knew that you are a gracious and compassionate God, slow to anger and abounding in love, a God who relents from sending calamity.
