WORSHIP TODAY

Sunday - September 27, 2026

Today, as we return to the book of Exodus with Pastor Jeff, our attention will be on chapter 7, where we examine how God reveals Himself to Moses, Aaron, and Pharaoh. Our scripture for reflection is Exodus 7:1-25, which provides a crucial backdrop for understanding the interactions among these key figures and God's unfolding plan. In this chapter, we observe the initiation of a series of divine actions that pave the way for the Israelites' liberation from their bondage in Egypt.

MISSIONARY OF THE WEEK

This week, we highlight Johann Matthies, the Multiply Regional Team Leader for Europe and Central Asia. Johann was thankful for the chance to attend the Missions Conference in Fresno two weeks ago, where he enjoyed reconnecting with friends from Reedley MB. Please join us in prayer for Johann as he serves and ministers within the government and his community in Germany. Additionally, pray for the new church plant in Essen, Germany, and for opportunities to uplift those working with immigrants across the country. As Johann continues to support and encourage friends, pastors, and ministry leaders in his region, your prayers are greatly appreciated.
