MISSION OPPORTUNITIES

From Mercy Street, our Missionary of the Week

"The biggest prayer we need is that God would light up the streets we visit. They are dark and oppressive. The women living in these situations are trapped, feel hopeless, and the men continue to hold them in bondage. We know God can break any chain and tear down any wall, so we need to continue to pray for that to happen. Also, that light would flood Parkway Drive, on and off the streets, and that God's hope and the promise of His salvation would fill the hearts of the sweet souls that God knows and sees. We know He desires to have a relationship with them, and we want to help bridge that gap."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The flowers have been placed by the children of Adena Goertzen in honor of her nearly 102 years of life. Her service will be this Thursday, February 10th, at 1:30pm in the Memorial Service Building at Reedley Cemetery.

Our condolence is extended to the family of Myrna Mosqueda. A service is being planned for Wednesday, February 9th, in Reedley.
