Many marriages across the United States are struggling. Some are just calling it quits, even among Christians. He will be speaking from Ephesians 5:15-33.

"We are just days away from our departure date - the early hours of August 25th - and there are still A LOT of things to finalize. Our house needs to be ready to receive the family that will make it their home. We have to finish packing our suitcases. We have to close accounts - bank, credit cards, PGE, etc. We need to continue preparing emotionally to say good-bye to the life we knew here and to our family, friends, our church family, and our support systems. Please pray for an overflowing of hope, peace, joy, and lots of grace and patience towards each other. Thank you."
