MISSION OPPORTUNITIES

Missionary of the Week - Pablo and Maricela Chavez, serving with Multiply in Peru. Pablo and Maricela minister to people in need. They visited Amador and his wife in Bagua Grande, near the jungle, to provide words of love and encouragement. Amador is a non-believer. Esmeralda and her family are new believers. Esmeralda has been diagnosed recently with cirrhosis by a doctor. This family has had a stronghold of alcoholism. Pray for this family for spiritual health and emotional restoration. Milagros is a new believer. She is battling cancer. Pray for her, her two young boys, and her husband as they walk with God to battle Milagros illness. There was a pastoral family retreat, June 23-25, for families to gather together and to become better acquainted. Relationships were developed and the sharing of ideas about ministering together in the area were discussed. Pray for the development of unity among the fourteen pastors and lay leaders. Let's keep the Chavez family in prayer as they have faced many challenges in the nine months since they have been in Peru. There was political unrest, the dengue pandemic caused by the increased rainfall, the scorpions and the rat infestation in their home, and their son Joshua's religious visa has been denied. Pray for God to intervene and reestablish his religious visa in August. Praise God for resolving the plumbing issues in their house in Orange Cove with the help from volunteers. They believe God is present in all their situations and He will be taking care of them one step at a time. They thank you for your prayers and support. Financial support may be given through multiply.net with the code CO773-Pablo & Maricela.
