

Gems From Jeremiah

Part VI; October 25, 2026

Then the Lord gave me this message: “This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: The good figs represent the exiles I sent from Judah to the land of the Babylonians. I will watch over and care for them, and I will bring them back here again. I will build them up and not tear them down. I will plant them and not uproot them. I will give them hearts that recognize me as the Lord. They will be my people, and I will be their God, for they will return to me wholeheartedly. – Jeremiah 24:4-7 (NLT)

“God Hasn’t Given Up On You”

Consequences are a result of our _____,
not a reflection of _____.

People ruin their lives by their own foolishness and then are angry at the Lord. – Proverbs 19:3 (NLT)

Today I have given YOU the choice between life and death, between blessings and curses. Now I call on heaven and earth to witness the choice you make. Oh, that YOU would choose life, so that you and your descendants might live! – Deuteronomy 30:19 (NLT)

God’s desire is not to _____ us but to _____ us.

Think about it: Just as a parent disciplines a child, the Lord your God disciplines you for your own good.
– Deuteronomy 8:5 (NLT)

God wants to increase our _____.

God wants to strengthen our _____.

God wants us to forge our _____.

God works even in our lack of _____ to help us to _____.

Surely your goodness and unfailing love will pursue me all the days of my life, and I will live in the house of the Lord forever. – Psalm 23:6 (NLT)

God is always focused on who we can _____, not who we _____!

This is what the Lord says: “You will be in Babylon for seventy years. But then I will come and do for you all the good things I have promised, and I will bring you home again. For I know the plans I have for you,” says the Lord. “They are plans for good and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope.”
– Jeremiah 29:10-11 (NLT)
