

The Next Hundred Years

November 1, 2026

We will not hide these truths from our children; we will tell the next generation about the glorious deeds of the Lord, about his power and his mighty wonders...so the next generation might know them—even the children not yet born—and they in turn will teach their own children. – Psalm 78:4, 6 (NLT)

We must continually recommit to the _____ of the church.

Therefore, go and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. Teach these new disciples to obey all the commands I have given you. And be sure of this: I am with you always, even to the end of the age.
– Matthew 28:19-20 (NLT)

The never-ending responsibility of the church is to make disciples who make disciples.

The mission of the church becomes powerful when...

It is _____.

It is _____.

It is _____.

We must prepare ourselves for _____.

The seven last words of the church are:
“We’ve never done it that way before!”

Our _____ will change.

Our _____ will change.

Our _____ will change.

We must embrace the _____ it will require.

Now here is what I am trying to say: All of you together are the one body of Christ, and each one of you is a separate and necessary part of it.
– 1 Corinthians 12:27 (TLB)

We must stay dependent upon _____.

For we are not fighting against flesh-and-blood enemies, but against evil rulers and authorities of the unseen world, against mighty powers in this dark world, and against evil spirits in the heavenly places.
– Ephesians 6:12 (NLT)

After that generation died, another generation grew up who did not acknowledge the Lord or remember the mighty things he had done for Israel.
– Judges 2:10 (NLT)
