Scripture

Proverbs 19:11

- Controlling your temper and overlooking offense is sensible and respectable.

Proverbs 22:24-25

- Don't befriend the hot tempered because they endanger you, too. (Anger deafens you, making it hard to listen to reason.)

Hebrews 13:17

- We show our spiritual leaders respect and listen to their guidance because they are concerned about our souls and are accountable to God. Let's not make it more difficult than needed for them and for us.
- Hebrews 10:24-25 Encourage and motivate others.

Matthew 22:1-14

- If we haven't fully accepted Jesus and allowed the Holy Spirit to change us, we aren't wearing the proper garment. Be the chosen. Embrace the change.

Luke 16:19-31

- We should be together, ministering to our families and friends while we still have time.
- "We can be the miracle that draws others to Jesus." - Delicia Gipson

There's power in association. Be aware of who you associate with as to not put your own soul in danger.
