Kingdom Reflection: Until We Next Meet

So little time has passed since we bid you farewell. The memory of your life, loyalty, and love stands like an immovable mountain on the horizons of our hearts. We will never forget you. You bore much fruit and that fruit remains (John 15:16). We embrace God's will to collect you from this world - full of struggle, strife, and toil; to deliver you to reward. For we are "of good courage and confident hope (2 Corinthians 5:8 AMP)" that you are now present with the Lord.

We love and miss you. One day, we will praise God along side you and say "Worthy are You, our Lord and God, to receive the glory and the honor and the power; (Revelation 4:11 AMP)." We anticipate the day when we next meet.

Kingdom Clarity.

Do you struggle with distinguishing between the right and wrong things to do? Remember, as Kingdom citizens, many choices may seem clear. We must know what God thinks about the choices and determine a clear choice based on His thoughts, alone (Leviticus 10:10). Is the following acceptable? Why or why not? During your private devotion, pray, study, and meditate on: Self Confidence We would love to hear from you. Want to share what God has revealed to you? Got questions? Need help? Life Changing Word recognizes those who are mothers or mother figures in varied capacities. Those who struggle with infertility. Those who have lost children! Those who have, by choice or circumstance, not yet had children. Those who babysit or correct or teach or hug or kiss other's children with a mother's heart. Those single fathers working hard providing for their children. Those who have fur (or other) babies. Those who tend to feel left out today. We celebrate you! You, also, are honored today! Today is for you, too! We acknowledge you! More importantly, God sees you!

Happy "Other" Mothers Day.

Kingdom Concept: Your Mother

You can never read or study too much on any matter. Dedicate some time every day to mutter (say it out loud over and over) the scriptures below. Then pray to God for guidance, conviction, and, if needed, correction.

Exodus 20:12

Leviticus 19:3

Proverbs 31:28-31

John 19:26-27

3 John 1:4

We would love to hear from you. Got questions? Need help? Please connect with us

Kingdom Class: I'm saved. Now what?

Welcome to God's family!

I remember how excited I was when I was first adopted. There are some important next steps to take ensure your development into a healthy, strong, fully-functioning, and fruitful member of His family. Unlike the systems and cultural practices of this kingdom, where gossip, pride, revenge, resentment, deep-seated and explosive anger are accepted and celebrated, God looks for a specific set of qualities in His Kingdom citizens that we all must learn to master and to walk therein. As a new (or not so new) member of our family, let's look at subjects to assist with how to "walk with God" on a moment to moment basis.

Carefully consider the way you are feeling right now. Are you elated? Are you angry? Are you frustrated? Are you satisfied? Our emotions are like power cables inside us. From time to time, the "power" surges to the point where tears fall or we shout in exuberance or we think dark thoughts about a person, place, or thing. (You know they're nouns...)

Your new citizenship calls for emotional regulation. It demands that you put your emotions under God's control at all times. Allowing your emotions to control you is the opposite of what God expects of you. In 2020, a wise prophet once said, "Your emotions are just an indication that a thing has happened, not a sign that a thing should happen. # Thank You!

Thank you Mom for:

Your Kisses:

One of your kisses chases away all my pain.

Your Bed:

Whenever nightmares disturb my sleep, you let me crawl into your bed.

Your Tenderness:

When the storm of my tears blows you hold me until peace eventually returns.

Your Laughter:

You know just what to say or do to make me laugh out loud. The music of your laughter is a sound I will never, ever, forget.

Your Delicious Food:

You know so many recipes like cake, cookies, and candy. Oh, and you know how to make veggies, too.

Your Hugs:

Wrapped in one your warm embraces is my favorite place to be. There I am completely, content, happy and safe.

Your Instruction:

You pour into me so much of yourself. You taught me how to tie my shoes. You taught me how to get up early. You taught me how to take responsibility for my actions. When I grow up, I want to be just like you.

Your Example:

Watching you, teaches me how to love with my whole heart, how to face challenges at home, at school, at work, in traffic, everywhere.

Your Walk With God:

Thank you, Mom for your encouraging me when I struggle to see all it is God has poured into me. I pray that God teaches me how to honor you.

Your Prayers:

You pray with fervor. You seek God in everything. I hear you pray. I want to pray like you do.

Your Love:

You love me, though I may disagree, more than I could possibly love you back.

Please forgive me because I do not, and I simply cannot say "thank you" enough for all you do for and are to me.

Thank you, Mom! I love you!

KINGDOM

~It's Prayer Time~

Our great King commands us to "be unceasing and persistent in prayer;" (1 Thessalonians 5:17 AMP). Kingdom Chronicles offers assistance. Just in case you struggle to pray regularly or you operate at a highly disciplined level of Intercession, Our prayer circle has some specific prayer points for you present to God.

BY LIVING WATERS PUBLISHING HOUSE FOR LIFE CHANGING WORD TEAM USA

Dear mom,

I see all your hard work. I see the sleepless nights. I see how tired you are. I hear the worries of your heart. This letter is to remind you of My Spirit and My unending love for you. I Authored this beautiful child (children) and I will Finish him or her. Yes, I know him or her by name. Trust Me as they grow and develop. Cast all your cares about him or her onto Me and watch how completely they mature.

You are a good mom. The enemy will tell you that you are not. Don't believe the lie. Trust Me with your children. Trust Me with your family. Trust Me with your life as My "plans for peace and well-being and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope" manifest.

All My love,
Jesus
