WEEK 3

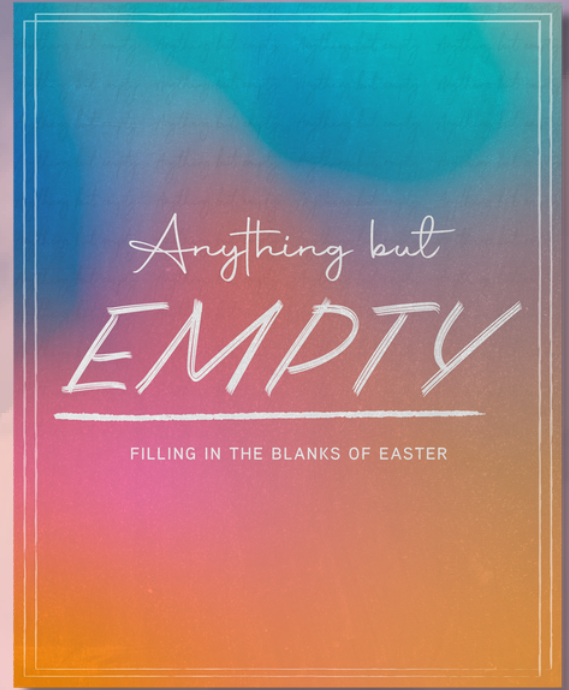

1-MINUTE SNAPSHOT

The heart of Christian theology is that our debt against God has been paid through the sacrifice of Jesus.

We are like the character Barabbas, who was guilty of terrorism, and they chose to crucify an innocent man instead.

We come to God innocent, but not because of our own goodness because of His.

It is from gratitude for our sins being paid that we follow Jesus with our whole lives.

How comfortable are you with owning the pain you've caused God or others? What do you think when you think of the word "sin"?

WEEK 3

LEARN RHYTHM

Take turns reading
Romans 12:1-21

- What do you think Paul means when he talks about transforming or renewing the mind? (v. 2)
- Why do you think it's important to remember that we all have different gifts and functions in the body of Christ? (v. 3-6)
- In the long list of things Paul says are marks of the true Christian, where are you growing or where do you need to grow? (v. 9-20)

“Lean into the tension”
Question

Blessing those who persecute you is a tough pill to swallow sometimes. What do you think this looks like practically? (v. 12)

Follow along.

WEEK 3

FOLLOW RYTHYM

Practicing confession is uncomfortable. And freeing.

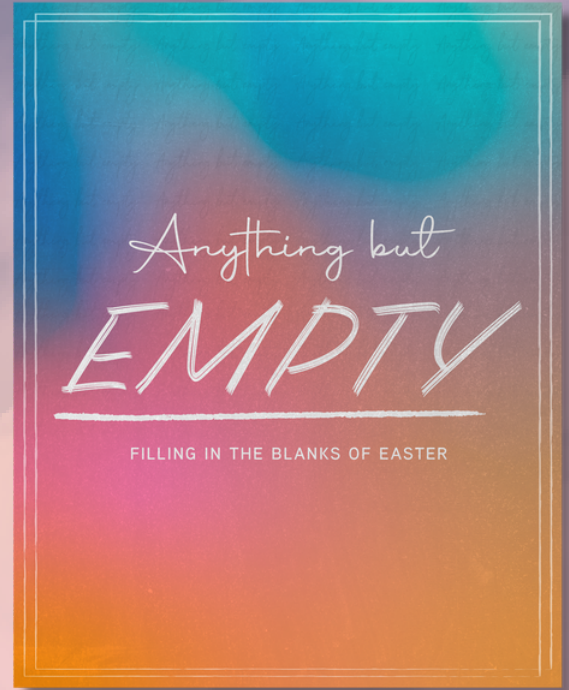

1

Sit quietly for 3 minutes as a Group and ask God to reveal something you did, said, or thought this week that doesn't align with His desire for you.

2

Share that thing with the Group and pray this over each other at the end of your time.

Forgiveness is a given.

Since we've compiled this long and sorry record as sinners (both us and them) and proved that we are utterly incapable of living the glorious lives God wills for us, God did it for us. Out of sheer generosity he put us in right standing with himself.
