Call to Worship

Rev. Yeeun Kim

L: We come to worship a God who does not hold back, but scatters love freely everywhere.

P: Generous God, shower us with your grace.

L: Today we remember the saints who went before us, whose lives bore fruit in this abundant soil.

P: Generous God, shower us with your grace.

L: May our hearts be open earth, ready to receive the wild, generous seed of the Gospel.

A: Generous God, we give you thanks for all those who have run the race of faith and have completed the course. Help us to love and serve generously as we have been blessed by you and have received the witness of the saints. Amen!

READING THE ROLL OF THE SAINTS

All Saints Day is a universal festival of the church. This festival day directs our attention to the richness of Christian history and the varied experiences of the grace of God by lifting up the lives of the saints.

Below are the names of the members and friends of Haddonfield United Methodist Church who have died since All Saints Day last year. We remember them in our prayers today, and give thanks for their lives. We remember and find strength in their faith and the faith of all the saints both known to us and known only to God.

WE REMEMBER...

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

You have blessed us with saints all of our lives, God of the ages: those who put up with us, and those who prepared us for discipleship; those who have touched us with their compassion, and those who illumine the way for us. You surround us with saints, even when we don't recognize or much less appreciate them, Spirit of wonder. For all the saints of every age, especially ours, we give you our gratitude and praise, God in Community, Holy in One. Amen.

EXTRAVAGANT

Sermon Notes for Sunday, November 1, 2026. Based on Rev. Dr. Chris Heckert's sermon.

And he told them many things in parables, saying: "Listen! A sower went out to sow. And as he sowed, some seeds fell on the path, and the birds came and ate them up. Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they did not have much soil, and they sprang up quickly, since they had no depth of soil. But when the sun rose, they were scorched; and since they had no root, they withered away." – Matthew 13:3-6

1. In modern culture, we often feel compelled to conserve and preserve because we treat our limited resources with a _____ mindset.
2. Grace is defined as unmerited favor, meaning it is not _____ based or something we earn.
3. In the Parable of the Sower, the farmer scatters seed extravagantly on all ground types, demonstrating that God's grace falls on _____ people, although they do not all receive or respond to it the same.
4. Authors Dr. Stephen Trzeciak and Dr. Anthony Mazzarelli point out in their book Wonder Drug that _____ is not the same thing as self-care.
5. God has hard-wired human beings to find greater joy, health, and fulfillment when we _____ and serve others rather than focus solely on ourselves.
6. A major obstacle to generosity is our tendency to hoard or accumulate things out of _____ that we won't have enough in the future.

Questions for Reflection

1. How does viewing the Parable of the Sower through the lens of the Sower's extravagant generosity (rather than just focusing on the quality of the soil) change the way you understand God's grace toward hard, rocky, or guarded areas of your own life?
 2. In what areas of your life (time, money, emotional presence, forgiveness) do you find yourself holding back out of fear or anxiety that there won't be "enough"?
 3. What is one concrete step you can take this week to share your resources, wisdom, or presence with someone in your community—especially someone who cannot repay you?

Weekly Prayer Focus - November 1, 2026

November Focus: Generous

Generous God, you give us more grace than we could ever earn or imagine. Open our eyes to the gifts already in our hands, and free us from fear that there will not be enough. Teach us to receive your love with gratitude and share it with open hearts, through our time, care, and resources, so that others may know your abundant goodness. Amen.
