Call to Worship (Adaptation of Psalm 72:1-4, 17-19)

Rev. Yeeun Kim

L: Give the land your justice, O God, and your righteousness to all people!

P: May the Lord judge with righteousness, and grant justice for the poor!

L: May the mountains yield prosperity for the people, and the hills righteousness.

P: May God defend the cause of the poor of the people, give deliverance to the children of the needy, and freedom from oppression!

L: In his days may righteousness flourish, and peace abound, until the moon is no more!

P: May his name endure forever; may his name increase as long as the sun shines!

L: May people be blessed through him; may all nations call him blessed.

P: Blessed be the Lord God, the God of Abraham, who alone does wondrous things!

L: Blessed be his glorious name forever; may the whole earth be filled with his glory!

A: Amen, and Amen! Let us worship the Lord!

FEED THE FLAME

Sermon Notes for Sunday, November 16, 2025. Based on Rev. Dr. Chris Heckert's sermon.

For to all those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away.—Matthew 25:29 (NRSV)

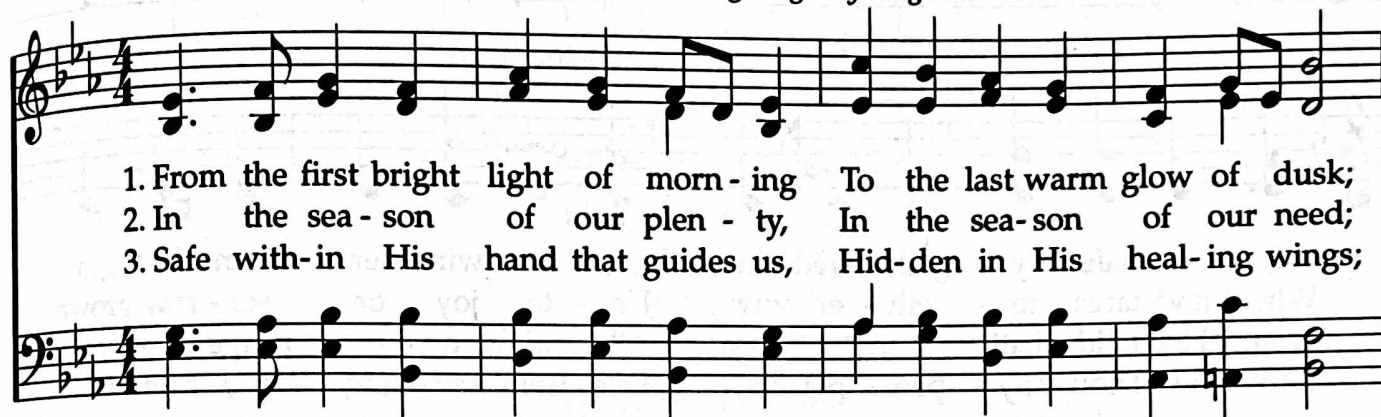

1. The four elements required for fire to continue burning are heat, fuel, air, and _____.
2. A _____ in Jesus' day was a very large sum of raw materials, worth about _____ today.
3. The master returned after a _____, indicating that investment takes time to yield a return.
4. The person with one talent experienced _____ because he let the blessing stagnate.
5. Spiritual depreciation creates ingratitude, and ingratitude leads to _____.
6. Richard Rohr suggests the first half of life is spent building the _____ of one's life.
7. Elders are those who are not in _____ with emerging generations.
8. _____ cannot keep us warm; we must constantly feed the fire with new wood.

Reflection Questions

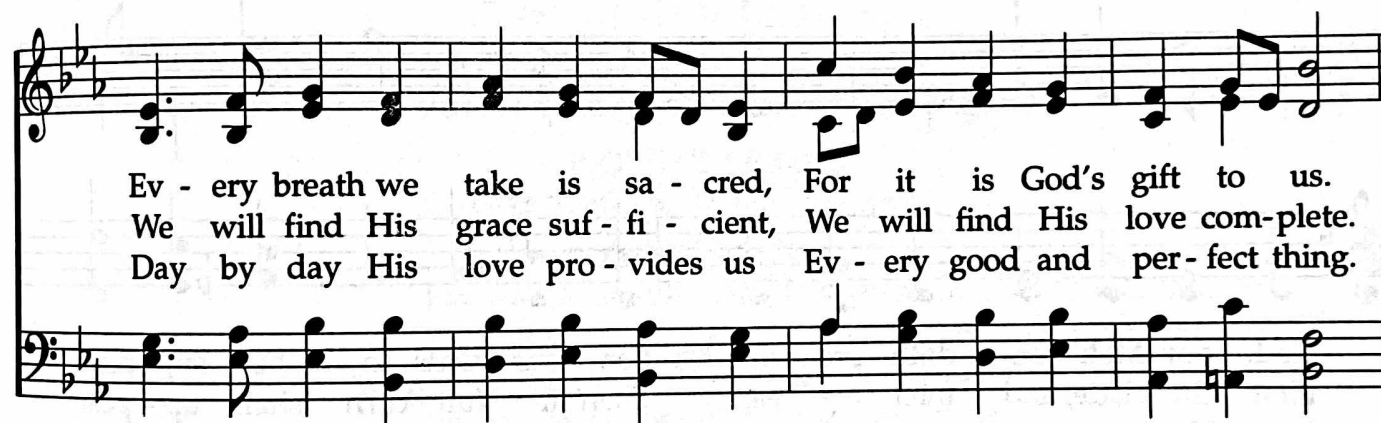

1. Do you feel more like the servant with the five talents (confident in investing) or the servant with the one talent (afraid to lose what you have)? How does that feeling impact your generosity with your time or money?
 2. Where are you still focusing too much energy on protecting the "container" of your own life?
 3. What is one small, consistent investment (of time, energy, or money) you can commit to this month to nurture a "spark" in the church or the community, trusting in spiritual appreciation over time?

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS TOY DRIVE–THROUGH SUNDAY, DECEMBER 14

The season of giving is almost here—and together, we have the chance to make Christmas brighter for children and families in our community! Haddonfield United Methodist Church is once again partnering with Acenda Integrated Health, The Neighborhood Center, and UrbanPromise for our Annual Christmas Toy Drive. Through Sunday, December 14, we’ll be collecting new, unwrapped toys for children of all ages. These gifts will bring hope and holiday cheer to local families who might otherwise go without this season. You can drop off donations in the marked collection bin located in the Welcome Center. Every toy, game, or stuffed animal helps remind a child that they are seen, loved, and valued. Whether you give a little or a lot, your generosity will make a real difference. Together, we can help ensure that every child experiences the joy and wonder of Christmas morning.

SECRET SANTA–STOP BY WELCOME CENTER TABLE

Now in its third year, our Secret Santa outreach is becoming a special way to share Christmas joy with children in need. Through our partnership with Neighborhood Collaborative Community Gardens, we help provide gifts for children living in Camden and Nicaragua. Stop by the table in the Welcome Center to pick up a Secret Santa letter. Each letter includes a child’s wish list, with an estimated cost of around $50 per child. Please return unwrapped gifts by Sunday, December 14, so they can be sorted and delivered in time for the celebrations.

EXCITING UPDATE TO OUR PRAYER LIST!

We're making some improvements to the Prayer List in our Sunday bulletin to make it easier for everyone to lift up our church family in prayer. Don't worry—all of your loved ones and ongoing concerns are still being faithfully prayed for! We're also adding a new section for Praise Reports — so we can celebrate answered prayers and God's blessings together!

Our Haddonfield UMC Prayer Team continues to meet regularly, and many of our small groups also spend time in prayer each week. Thank you for being a community that cares deeply, prays continually, and rejoices together!
