

Worship Defined - by Terry Williams

"Therefore I urge you, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living and holy sacrifice, acceptable to God, which is your spiritual service of worship. And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what the will of God is, that which is good and acceptable and perfect." (Romans 12:1-2)

The Worshiper's Creed

My testimony is — I am a worshiper of the one true God! I live my life in response to His overwhelming love for me. I will seek after Him while He may be found. I will love Him with all my heart, soul, mind, and strength. He is my single source of life, love, hope, happiness, and joy. I recognize Him as preeminent. I declare His complete authority. I will fully obey His greatest commandment. I will take responsibility in the Great Commission, the discipling of the saints, the work of ministry, and the spreading of the Gospel.

I AM A WORSHIPER OF GOD!
