👂 What You Heard In the Word

- When the prophet Ezekiel saw the glory of God, he fell on his face in humble worship.
- God also allowed the prophet Isaiah and the Apostle John to see his glory. They, like Ezekiel, showed fear, wonder, and respect in the presence of God.

💬 OutWord For Family Discussion

Suppose you heard someone say that he read a book, and it described exactly what heaven was going to be like. What could you say?

I know that heaven is going to be wonderful! But we need to be careful when we read things about heaven in any book except the Bible. God has shown us just a little bit about heaven, and that is all he wants us to know right now. If you study the Bible, you will see that God gave certain men visions of his throne, his glory, and heaven. They tried to explain it as well as they could—but I don't think any words in our language could explain or describe it. I want to go to the Book written by the One who is in heaven to find out about it. Other stories are pretty much just that—stories!
