

Twelve Sons Bookmark

Materials

- ☐ Bookmark sheets (following pages)
- ☐ Crayons or markers
- ☐ Scissors
- ☐ Glue sticks or tape

Instructions

Print both bookmark sheets for each student. Have students color the pictures then cut out the two main pieces on the thick lines.

Use glue or tape to attach the "Glue" tab (next to the Naphtali panel) to the back of the Gad panel to connect all 12 pictures.

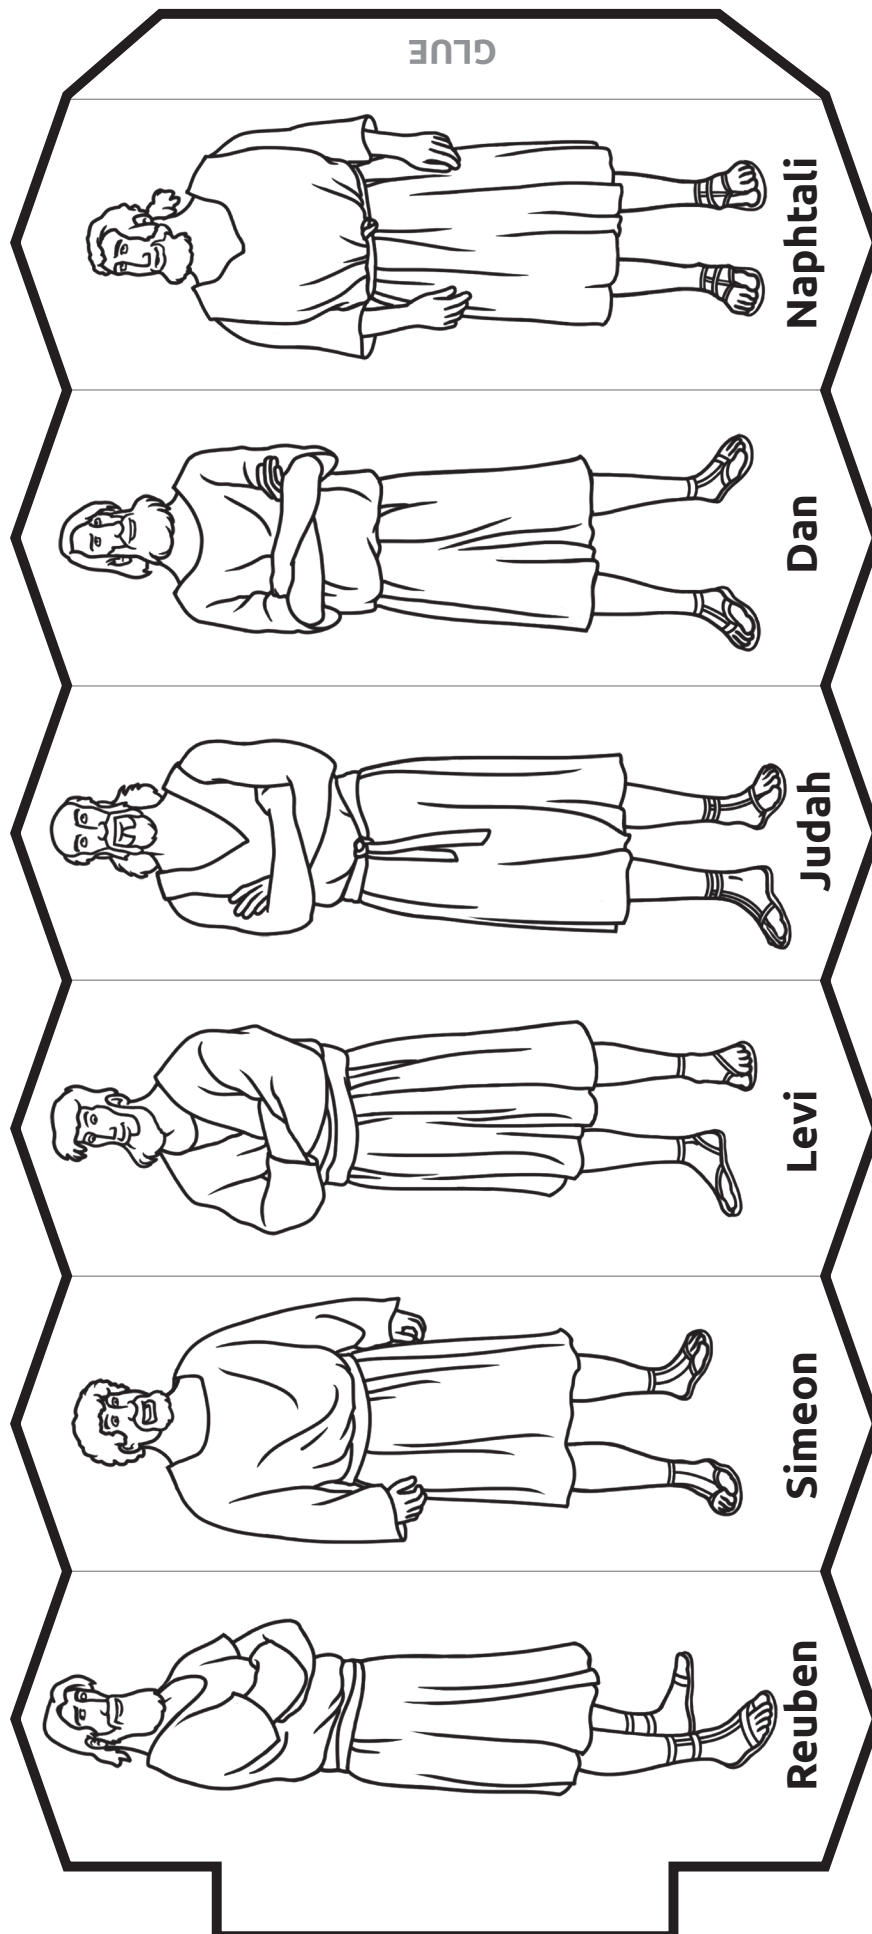

Fold the bookmark back and forth (paper fan/accordion style) on the thin folding lines. Gently pull the end tabs to unfold and see all the pictures and refold it to use as a bookmark.

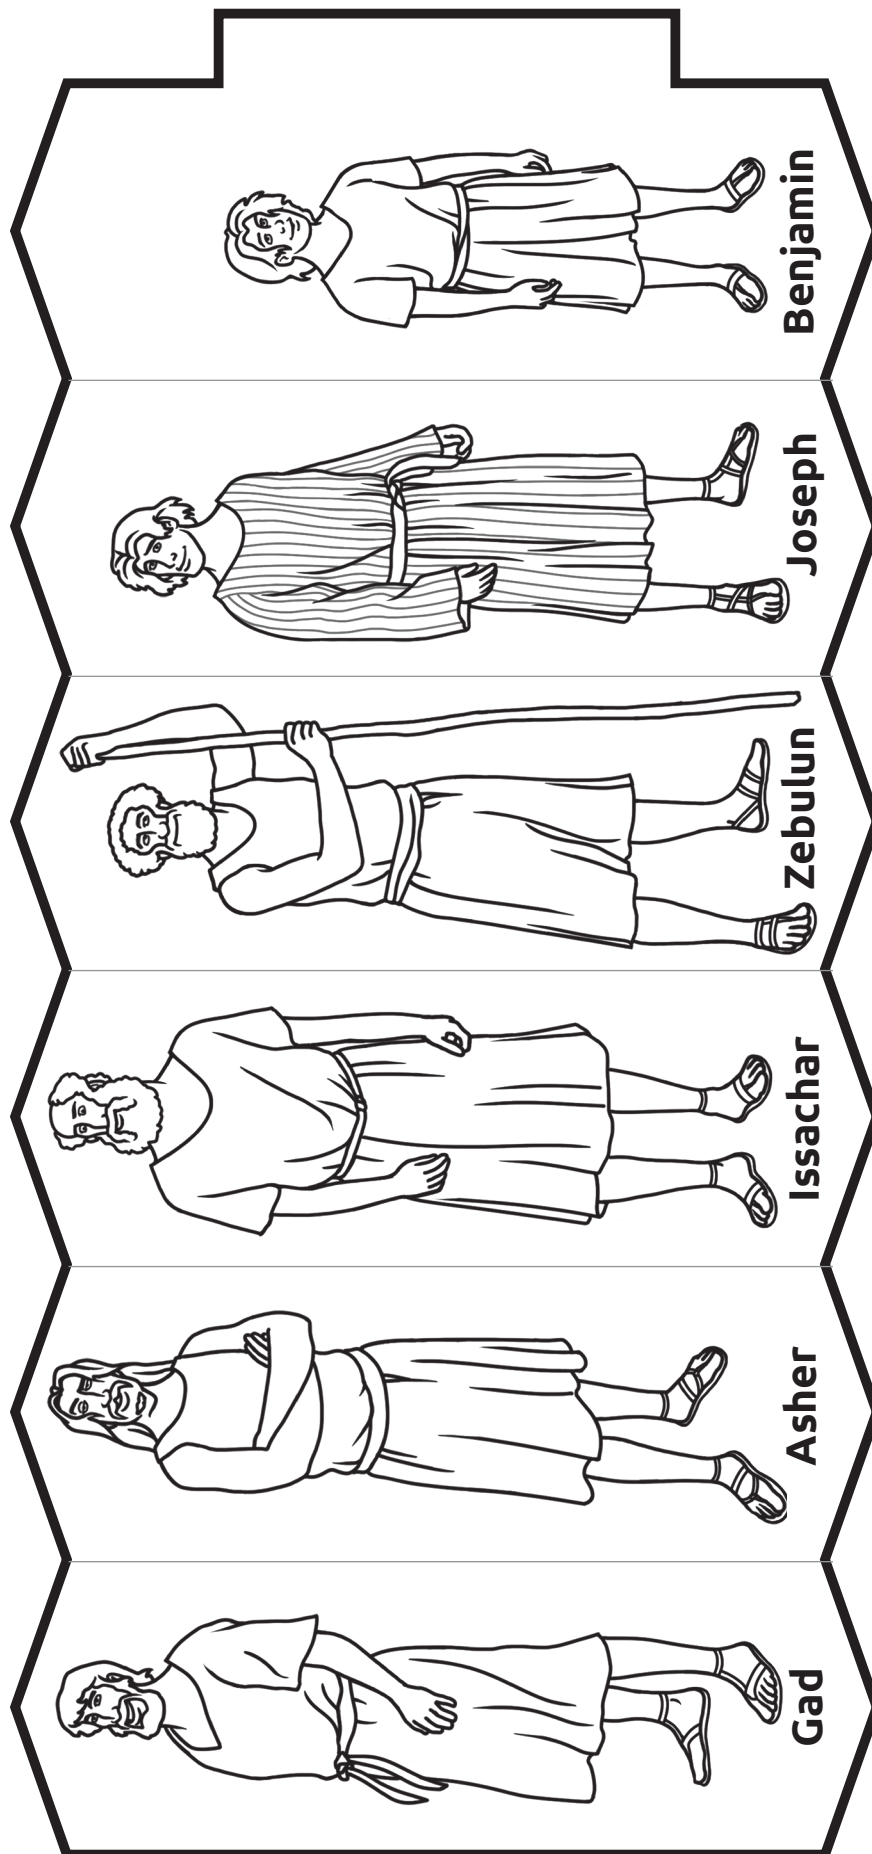

Suggested Discussion

God blessed Jacob with twelve sons and promised that they would have many descendants. One of those descendants would be Jesus.

We'll learn more about the twelve sons of Jacob as their families grow and become the twelve tribes of Israel.

Template 1: Cut on thick line. Fold on the thin lines. Apply glue or tape to the tab marked "GLUE."

Template 2: Cut on thick line. Fold on the thin lines. Line up Gad on the fold line next to Naphtali (Template 1) and attach the glue tab to the back.
