💬 OutWord For Family Discussion

Suppose you heard someone say that if a person becomes a Christian, he will have no more sickness, money troubles, or problems, but will have the best life ever. What could you say?

The Bible is clear that Christians will have a new life with Christ. Jesus said we will have life more abundantly. But that doesn't mean we will live longer and be richer. When you look at the whole Bible, you will see what Jesus was saying is that our life will be better because we know him and because he is with us in all we do. The Holy Spirit dwells in us to help us overcome sin. He gives us love and joy beyond measure. The things of this world pale in comparison to those things. And when we have troubles—and the Bible says we will—we can go to the Creator of the universe for help. Christians also have hope—the hope of life forever with God someday. That's life more abundant!
