

Review Questions

1. What was in between the Israelites' camp and the city of Jericho? Jordan River.
2. Why was the Jordan River difficult to cross at this time? It was flooded, overflowing its banks.
3. Who did God say should lead the people and go out first from the camp? The priests.
4. What were the priests commanded to carry? Ark of the covenant.
5. What did the priests have to do to show their faith before God worked a miracle? Put their feet in the water of the river.
6. What did God do so the Israelites could cross the Jordan? Blocked the river miles away so it stopped flowing.
7. When the water stopped, did the people have to walk through mud or was the ground dry? The ground was dry.
8. Where did Joshua set up the first 12 stones? In the middle of the river where the priests were standing with the ark.
9. One man from each tribe was told to collect what from the riverbed to bring to the other side? One stone.
10. What did Joshua do with the 12 stones the men collected? He stacked them up as a memorial.
11. In what nearby city did the people likely see the Jordan River stop and the Israelites cross? Jericho.
12. What happened when the priests carried the ark out of the river to the other side? God unblocked the river, and the water flowed like before.
13. What was the name of Israel's first camp in the promised land: Jericho, Gilgal, or Kadesh? Gilgal.
14. What were the Israelites supposed to remember when they saw the 12 stones? God's miracle to stop the Jordan River so they could cross over.
15. What other miracle did God do when the Israelites left Egypt that was similar to what happened at the Jordan River? He parted the Red Sea.
16. What is a memorial? A monument or holiday that reminds us of a person or event.
17. Give an example of a memorial we have today. Allow several students to answer. Answers may include holidays, monuments, communion, etc.
18. What does communion, or the Lord's supper, remind us of? Jesus gave his life on the cross for sinners.
19. Why is it important to have memorials and to learn what they are for? To remind us of important people and events.
20. Who can say the memory verse, Deuteronomy 7:9? Allow several students to recite the verse.