Justin & Jessie

Suddenly, there was a loud noise and the car started to make a clunking sound. Ka-thunk, ka-thunk!

Justin looked up at his mom, who was struggling with the steering wheel. Justin glanced out the window at the ditch. “Oh, no!” he shouted as he felt the car swerve.

Justin gets a real scare on his way to school but finds out later how God was taking care of everything. Read about “A Popped Tire & Spilled Oatmeal.”

What You Heard In the Word

- God protected Moses at his birth so that he would escape Pharaoh’s command that all Israelite baby boys be killed.
- God helped Moses escape from Egypt and find a new family in Midian.

OutWord For Family Discussion

You might hear someone say God’s Word is not true—that there is no way an Egyptian pharaoh would ever adopt a Hebrew baby into his family.

How could you answer?

God’s Word does not need to be proven. It is all true. However, archaeologists and historians have discovered that the pharaoh who most likely reigned when Moses was born had no sons. This could be why Pharaoh would adopt Moses. Because he didn’t have any sons of his own, his hope could have been that Moses would become pharaoh after him.
