What You Heard In the Word

- God gave Isaac and Rebekah twin boys—Esau and Jacob.
- Esau didn't care about his birthright and sold it to Jacob for a bowl of stew.

Ask your child these questions from today's lesson:

1. What did Esau's birthright mean? He would lead the family when his father died.
2. What did Jacob want Esau to sell to him for a bowl of stew? His birthright.
3. Why did Esau sell his birthright? He didn't care about it. He was hungry. He was impatient.

Memory Verse

Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths.

Proverbs 3:5-6

Justin & Jessie

"Justin, guess what!" Jessie said as Justin let her in the back door. "My mom said we're all going to Papa's Pizza Palace for dinner tonight."

"I love Papa's Pizza Palace!" Justin replied.

Justin and Jessie are excited for pizza, but they're hungry now! Will they wait for their parents or take care of their hunger their own way? Find out what happens in "Snack Cakes & Stomachaches."
