

Lesson 107

God Blesses Daniel

Four young men choose to obey God rather than man.

Studying God's Word

Lesson Time

Don't forget! Review the Optional Supplements and determine where you can use them.

Have the students assemble in a circle away from the tables—either on the floor or in their chairs.

Bring your stuffed animal, Bible, Lesson Flip Chart, and any items you prepared for this lesson.

Prayer

This prayer time is designed to help the students begin to understand some simple concepts about prayer and to encourage them to pray.

We start our Bible lesson with prayer. Turn to the Flip Chart Prayer Page. Briefly review the different types of prayer presented there.

Today let's say prayers of thanksgiving and give God thanks.

I'll start. Dear God, thank you for . . . (insert personal prayer here).

Pass a special stuffed animal—prayer bear—around the circle, giving all the students an opportunity to pray, or choose a volunteer to stand beside you and pray.

Very good! Now let's put our stuffed animal away, and we'll answer our Bible Truth questions.

I love you prayers—Adoration
I'm sorry prayers—Confession
I'm thankful prayers—Thanksgiving
Please prayers—Supplication

Bible Truths

These four questions will be repeated each week to help the students learn foundational truths.

Because God is just, what must he do when we sin? He must punish us.

What word means God may not punish us as we deserve? Mercy.

Can we trust God all the time? Yes, because he is faithful.

What word means God knows all things? Omniscient.

Bible Pass Around

Before Bible Pass Around, place a sticky note in your Bible to mark the first passage to be read.

Today, we are going to look into God's Word, the Bible. Hold up Bible. God's Word is true, and we can trust what it says. But where should we look? One of you will help me with that. We're going to play Bible Pass Around. I want everyone to count with me up to the number _____. (You may also choose to recite the books of the Bible, sing one of the lesson songs, or recite the memory verse as you do this activity.) As we say each number (or word), you will carefully pass the Bible to the person beside you. Remember, we don't want to drop it or tear it. Then when we get to the last number (or word), whoever has the Bible will hold on to it until we are ready for it in our lesson. Hand the Bible to the first student. Here we go!

K-1st Lesson

Pre-K Lesson

Introduction

Refer to #28 on the Exodus to Malachi Timeline. We learned about the prophet Jeremiah who warned the people in Judah to turn back to God. But they would not listen. So, God sent an enemy to attack Judah.

Refer to Lesson 106 Flip Chart. King Nebuchadnezzar and his army attacked Judah three different times. We learned in our last lesson that they destroyed the city of Jerusalem and the temple of the Lord. Each time they came, they took people from Judah back to Babylon far from their homes. We'll talk about what happened to some of those people in our lesson today.

Bring out the stuffed animals/dolls you brought. But first we're going to start our lesson thinking about names. I brought some friends with me today, and I want you to help me name them. Allow students to offer suggestions. Discuss why they chose those specific names. Have the class vote to decide the final names for each animal or doll.

We all have names. Why is a name important? Allow discussion. It's what others call you; others know you by your name; it's part of your identity (who you are); it makes you different from others. Do any of you have a nickname or a special name your mom or dad calls you by? Allow answers.

How do you feel when someone calls you by the wrong name? Allow answers.

How would you feel if someone changed your name to something you didn't like? Allow discussion.

Four Names Are Changed

Let's talk about four young men who had their names changed to new ones that weren't very good. Like many of God's people, these men had names with special meanings. First there was Daniel; his name means "God is my judge." His friend was called Hananiah, which means "God is gracious." Then there was Mishael, which means "Who is like God?" And the fourth young man was Azariah. His name means "God has helped."

What word did you hear in all the meanings of these four names? God.

Yes! God had chosen the Israelites to be his special people, so many Israelites, like these four friends, had names with meanings that reminded them of the true God.

Remember, the king of Babylon captured the people of Judah and took them away from their homes. When Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah were taken to Babylon, they were given new names. King Nebuchadnezzar had commanded that all the good-looking, smart young men should be trained to serve him. He wanted them to forget about their home and their God.

So they were given names that didn't have anything to do with the true God. Instead, these names all had something to do with false gods of Babylon! Let's find out what their new names were in the book of Daniel.

Daniel 1:7

Refer to the Books of the Bible Poster. Daniel is one of the major prophets in the Old Testament. Have the student with the Bible bring it up and turn to the sticky note. As I read Daniel 1:7, listen for the new names that were given to Daniel and his friends. Read the verse.

The chief of the eunuchs was in charge of all the young men being trained to serve King Nebuchadnezzar.

What name did he give to Daniel?
Belteshazzar.

How about Hananiah? Shadrach.

What was Mishael's new name? Meshach.
And Azariah? Abednego.

King Nebuchadnezzar hoped these men would forget about their God and serve only him from then on. But would these men forget God? Let's see what happened next.

Four Men Obey God

These four young men had new names, a new place to live, and many new things to learn. The king wanted them to do everything he told them to do—starting with what they should eat and drink. The men were told that they should eat the king's food and drink his wine. But there was a problem.

You see, the king wanted them to eat foods that were offered to idols, and many of his foods were things that God had commanded his people not to eat. Daniel did not want to disobey God by eating the food from the king's table. When Daniel explained to the chief of the servants about the food, God led the chief to show kindness to Daniel. The chief wanted to help, but he was afraid to go against the king's rules.

Daniel 1:12

Daniel understood the chief's problem, but he had an idea. Listen to Daniel's idea in verse 12. Read verse 12.

Daniel suggested a test. How long would this test last? 10 days.

During the test, what would Daniel and his friends be given to eat and drink instead of the king's food? Vegetables to eat and water to drink.

After 10 days of eating vegetables and drinking water, the steward in charge would check Daniel and his friends to make sure they didn't look thin and sick.

Show the Lesson Flip Chart. So, the steward agreed to the plan. Daniel and his three friends ate only vegetables and drank water for 10 days. The other men being trained for the king ate the rich food and drank the wine.

God Blesses the Four Men

After 10 days, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah looked fine and healthy, not skinny and sick. They even looked better than the others who ate the king's food!

Daniel 1:16

The steward was glad to see that these men were healthy. Let's find out what he did after the test. Read Daniel 1:16.

Since they looked so good, what did the steward take away? The food and wine. And what did he give them to eat from now on? Vegetables.

God helped these four young men because they wanted to obey him. First, he led the chief and the steward to listen to Daniel so that he and his friends wouldn't have to eat the king's food or drink his wine. Then God gave them better health than all the other young men in the palace.

But there's more! God also blessed these men and helped them learn many new things. He gave them great knowledge and wisdom. And, God gave Daniel a special gift. Daniel could understand the meanings of visions and dreams.

At the end of their training, King Nebuchadnezzar spoke with Daniel and his friends. He liked them and kept them as his own special servants in the palace.

The king already had officials and wise men to help him, but God made these four men ten times better than any of them.

Whenever the king had questions, Daniel and his friends had such great wisdom that they were able to give him an answer every time.

Daniel and his friends stayed faithful and obedient to God, even while they were being forced to serve a king in a country far from home. They knew God was still in control of everything, and he rewarded them with good health, learning, and wisdom!

K-1st Lesson

Introduction

Refer to Lesson 105 Flip Chart. In the last two lessons, we learned about the prophet Jeremiah. God sent Jeremiah to warn the people in Judah to turn back to God. But they would not listen. So, God finally sent the Babylonian army to capture Judah and take many of the people away to Babylon.

Refer to #28 on the Exodus to Malachi Timeline. During Jeremiah's life, the Babylonians attacked the kingdom of Judah three different times. The first time King Nebuchadnezzar captured many people, including Judah's king, and took them to Babylon. The second time, the next king of Judah was also taken as a prisoner along with many of the people. That's when Nebuchadnezzar chose Zedekiah to be the last king of Judah.

Refer to Lesson 106 Flip Chart. But when Zedekiah turned against him, Nebuchadnezzar attacked a third time. This time he destroyed the city of Jerusalem and the temple of the Lord. Many of those still alive were captured and taken away to Babylon far from home.

In our lesson today, we'll find out what happened to some of the people who were captured. But first we're going to start by thinking about names.

Bring out the stuffed animals/dolls you brought. I brought some friends with me today, and I want you to help me name them. Allow students to offer suggestions. Discuss why they chose those specific names. Have the class vote to decide the final names for each animal or doll.

God Blesses the Four Men

Let's find out what happened at the end of the test.

Daniel 1:15–16

I'm going to read Daniel 1:15–16. Read the verses.

So how did Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah look after the 10 days? Did they look better or worse than the others who ate the king's food? They were better in appearance/looked better and were fatter than the others!

Yes, they looked better and fatter! Fatter means they looked healthy, not skinny and sick.

Since they looked so good, what did the steward take away? The food and wine. And what did he give them to eat from now on? Vegetables.

God helped these four young men because they wanted to obey him. First, he led the chief and the steward to listen to Daniel's idea for a test so that he and his friends wouldn't have to eat the king's food. Then God gave them better health than all the other young men in the palace.

And God did even more for them. Because of their obedience, God blessed these men and helped them learn many new things. He gave them great knowledge and wisdom. And, God gave Daniel a special gift. Daniel could understand the meanings of visions and dreams.

At the end of their training, the chief brought Daniel and his friends before the king. When King Nebuchadnezzar spoke with them, he liked them and kept them close by as his own special servants in the palace.
