What You Heard In the Word

- God used Ezra, the scribe and priest, to lead the second group of Jews from Persia back to Jerusalem.
- Ezra learned that the Jews in Jerusalem had disobeyed God and married foreign people. Ezra cried out to God because of their sin. When Ezra taught them God's law, the Jewish people felt sorry for their sins and repented.

OutWord For Family Discussion

Suppose you heard someone say that the Israelites were much more wicked than we are today—because of their idolatry. What could you say?

The Israelites were wicked. But we are just like the Israelites. We are all sinners who turn away from God. We make things more important than God sometimes, and we disobey him. Our sins of pride and selfishness may look different from the idol worship in the Bible, but anything we put before God is an idol—and it is all wicked in God's sight!

But God promises forgiveness and eternal life to us through his Word. That promise comes through Jesus and is available to everyone who is willing to repent and turn away from sin, believe in the Jesus of the Bible, and worship him alone.
