

A black and white line drawing of a church service. In the center, a priest with a beard and a simple robe holds a cross. To his left, a woman with her hair in a bun kneels in prayer, her hands clasped. To the right, a man holds a large book labeled 'BIBLE'. In the foreground, several children are engaged in play: one boy holds a toy car, another holds a block, and a girl plays with a string of beads. In the back row, a boy holds a book. The church building, featuring a steeple and arched windows, is visible in the background.

Cross out the pictures of things that God says not to do. Circle the things God wants us to do. Color the pictures. Roll the paper like a scroll and tie it with ribbon.
