What You Heard In the Word

- The prophets Micah and Isaiah wrote about Jesus many years before he was born.
- We can trust prophecies in the Bible because God told the prophets what to write.

Ask your child these questions from today's lesson:

1. What word means Jesus had no beginning and has no end; he always was and always will be? Eternal.
2. What are some things the prophets wrote about Jesus? Where he would be born, he would be a ruler, he would be the Savior, he would die, he would not fight or stop his death.
3. Since the prophets wrote about things before they happened, how did they know what to write? God told them what to write.

Memory Verse

Ephesians 2:4-5

But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved.

Justin & Jessie

“Let’s spread our blanket here,” said Jessie, pointing out a nice spot in the grass.

“I don’t know, Jessie,” said her mom, looking at the sky.

“Those clouds up there look pretty dark.”

“But I wanna eat here in the sunshine,” Jessie explained.

“Besides, my dad said the weather forecast is sunny,” Justin added.

In “Soggy Sandwiches & Snowy Forecasts” Justin and Jessie learn that even if the weather forecast says one thing, the weather may turn out to be very different.
