What You Heard In the Word

- David tried twice to bring the ark of the covenant to Jerusalem. The first time, he didn't follow God's directions, and a man named Uzzah died. The second time, David did obey God's instructions, and there was a great celebration.
- God promised David that his son would build a temple for the ark as the next king and Jesus would come from David's family.

Ask your child these questions from today's lesson:

1. Why did Uzzah die when he touched the ark of the covenant? David and the people didn't follow God's instructions for moving the ark. Uzzah didn't show respect for God and the ark.
2. What did David want to build and who would build it? A temple for the ark of the covenant. His son would build it, not David.
3. Who was the one God promised would come from David's family and be the King of kings forever? Jesus.

Justin & Jessie

Justin poked his head out through the tent flap.

"Good morning, Justin," whispered Jessie.

"Hi," said Justin as he crawled out of the tent. "I'm starving. I'm so hungry, I could eat a—chipmunk?!"

Uh oh! Is the chipmunk eating Justin and Jessie's breakfast? Read "Chipmunks & French Toast" to find out what the chipmunk is doing at their campsite.
