

The Makings of Revival

2 Chronicles 7:14 | March 22, 2026

Revival begins with humility, prayer, and repentance.

Understanding Revival

- » Humility — "God, I can't do this myself!"
- » Prayer — "God, I need your help!"
- » Repentance — "God, I want your way!"

STUDY QUESTIONS

GETTING STARTED:

What does the word "revival" mean to you? How does the sermon's definition challenge or confirm your understanding?

A DEEPER DIVE:

- » When do you find it hardest to admit you need God's help?
- » Share about a time when you tried to accomplish something in your own strength. What happened?
- » Be honest: Is prayer more of a "supplement" or a "strategy" in your life right now?
- » What keeps you from praying more consistently or deeply?
- » What does it mean to "bury your old life" and say yes to God's new way?
- » How can repentance be a regular rhythm rather than a one-time event?

NEXT STEPS:

Do you ever feel like you just don't have it in you to love your family or your community in the way you want to?

How does understanding that revival starts with humility, prayer, and repentance change your approach?
