

Title: Intergenerational Relationships

Scripture: Psalm 78:1-8

Date Preached: January 24, 2021

DISCUSSION STARTER:

What is an older saying you might have heard growing up or even one you might use today?

DISCUSSION:

Read the scripture text as a group. If you were unable to worship with us on Sunday, you can watch this week's sermon at my.worthingtoncc.org/listen.

1. Why was this Psalm written and what is at the heart of its message?
2. How does our culture encourage young people today to pursue their talents (i.e. sports, academics, work)? How do I encourage my children or other children in these ways? How do I encourage them in their faith?
3. Why are stories so powerful and intriguing? How could you use the power of story to encourage someone from a younger or an older generation spiritually?
4. In what ways can I model my faith and obedience to God for someone from the next generation?

MY NEXT STEP:

What is something I can do this week that would encourage someone from another generation spiritually?

Next Week's Sermon Title: Relentless Compassion
