

Seeing Through the Fog

How Do I Trust God When I Can't See What's Next?

Hebrews 11 | November 30, 2025

How do we trust God when we can't see what's next?

We hold on to his promises.

- » the Promise of Eternity
- » the Promises of Right Now

A QUESTION TO REFLECT ON: How might God be using a season of uncertainty to help me grow?

STUDY QUESTIONS

GETTING STARTED:

Share a time when you had to make a decision without knowing what the outcome would be. What made it difficult? How did you eventually move forward?

A DEEPER DIVE:

Read Hebrews 11:1-2

- How does the writer of Hebrews define faith? Why do you think confidence and assurance without seeing is so challenging for us?

Read Hebrews 11:24-27

- What specific choices did Moses make that demonstrated his faith? What did he give up, and what was he holding onto instead?
- Why do you think God chose to guide Israel with His presence rather than giving them a map and schedule? What does this reveal about God's character?

Read 2 Corinthians 4:17-18

- How does this perspective shift the way we view our current circumstances?

THIS WEEK'S APPLICATION:

The sermon mentions two types of promises to hold onto: the promise of eternity and the promises of right now.

- Which one is harder for you to hold onto, and why?

Think about your current season of life.

- What "fog" are you facing right now? How might God be asking you to trust Him in this uncertainty?

Moses "kept his eyes on the one who is invisible."

- What are some practical ways we can keep our eyes on God when we're walking through uncertain times?

When Christians have peace in uncertainty, people notice.

- Who in your life might be watching how you respond to the unknown? How can your trust in God be a witness to them?

CLOSING:

How can this group specifically pray for you as you seek to trust God in the fog?
