Deuteronomy 11:10-24

I. The Promise of God's Provision

Deuteronomy 11:10-11, 14

- 10 For the land which you go to possess is not like the land of Egypt you the rain for you from which you have come, where you sowed your seed and watered it by foot, as a vegetable garden;
- 11 but the land which you cross over to possess is a land of hills and valleys, which drinks water from the rain of heaven,
- 14 Then I will give you the rain for your land in its season, the early rain and the latter rain, that you may gather in your grain, your new wine, and your oil.

II. The Promise of God's Revealed Presence

Deuteronomy 11:12-13

- 12 A land for which the LORD your God cares; the eyes of the LORD your God are always on it, from the beginning of the year to the very end of the year.
- 13 And it shall be that if you earnestly obey My commandments which I command you today, to love the LORD your God and serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul,

God reveals His Presence as we fulfill our primary purpose... Love & Serve Him!

If we Love & Serve Him with all of our hearts,
then His blessing will be upon us.

III. The Promise of God's Protection

- 16 Take heed to yourselves, lest your heart be deceived, and you turn aside and serve other gods and worship them,
- 17 lest the LORD's anger be aroused against you, and He shut up the heavens so that there be no rain, and the land yield no produce, and you perish quickly from the good land which the LORD is giving you.

- 21 that your days and the days of your children may be multiplied in the land of which the LORD swore to your fathers to give them, like the days of the heavens above the earth.
