Living Water - Part 3

John 4:1-26

Scene 1: Jesus The Source of Living Water

John 4:7-26

⁷There *came a woman of Samaria to draw water. Jesus *said to her, "Give Me a drink." ⁸For His disciples had gone away into the city to buy food. ⁹Therefore the Samaritan woman *said to Him, "How is it that You, being a Jew, ask me for a drink since I am a Samaritan woman?" (For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.) ¹⁰Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who says to you, 'Give Me a drink,' you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living water." ¹¹She *said to Him, "Sir, You have nothing to draw with and the well is deep; where then do You get that living water? ¹²You are not greater than our father Jacob, are You, who gave us the well, and drank of it himself and his sons and his cattle?" ¹³Jesus answered and said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will thirst again; ¹⁴but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him shall never thirst; but the water that I will give him will become in him a well of water springing up to eternal life." ¹⁵The woman *said to Him, "Sir,

John 4:7-26

John 4:7-26

John 4:7-26

give me this water, so I will not be thirsty nor come all the way here to draw.”¹⁶ He *said to her, “Go, call your husband and come here.”¹⁷ The woman answered and said, “I have no husband.” Jesus *said to her, “You have correctly said, ‘I have no husband’; ¹⁸for you have had five husbands, and the one whom you now have is not your husband;

John 4:7-26

this you have said truly.”¹⁹ The woman *said to Him, “Sir, I perceive that You are a prophet.”²⁰ Our fathers worshiped in this mountain, and you people say that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.”²¹ Jesus *said to her, “Woman, believe Me, an hour is coming when neither in this mountain nor in Jerusalem will you worship the Father. ²²You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews. ²³But an hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth; for such people the Father seeks to be His worshipers. ²⁴God is spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth.”²⁵ The woman *said to Him, “I know that Messiah is coming (He who is called Christ); when that One comes, He will declare all things to us.”

²⁶ Jesus *said to her, “I who speak to you am He.”

Richard Phillips

“It is clear that Jesus does not refer to the Holy Spirit, since he uses no definite article, but to the human spirit. Our worship of God must not be merely external but spiritual and inward. It has always been the case, in both the Old and New Testaments, that true worship is a matter of the heart and not of mere actions.”

John 14:6

⁶Jesus *said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.

Hebrews 1:1-3

¹God, after He spoke long ago to the fathers in the prophets in many portions and in many ways, ²in these last days has spoken to us in His Son, whom He appointed heir of all things, through whom also He made the world. ³And He is the radiance of His glory and the exact representation of His nature, and upholds all things by the word of His power.

Hebrews 1:1-3

“Rightly understanding worship “in spirit” will help us to sort through some of the heated debates regarding worship today. Some people think a contemporary worship style is more spiritual because it is more likely to include bodily involvement or emotional displays. By spiritual they mean spirited.

Richard Phillips

On the other side, people think that preserving timeworn practices and church traditions is more spiritual. But one can engage in the most reverent acts yet not offer himself spiritually to God."
