

SUMMER AT HEARTLAND

SERMON REFLECTION GUIDE

REVIEW | Spend some time reviewing your week

- What moments from this week would you live all over again? Why?
- What moments from this week would you do differently if you could? What would you change?
- Where did you see God at work? Or where would you have liked to see God at work?

REFLECT | On the sermon

- Reflect on some thoughts that really stood out to you from the sermon. What was significant for you about these things? How have they impacted you so far?
- What passages of scripture were highlighted this week? What are the significant aspects of the passages you heard? What truths do they point you toward?
- What are some questions that you had as you listened to this week's message? What do you think is at the heart of those questions?
- How did you hear the gospel preached this week?
- What do you think are the main take-aways from the sermon? Are you being challenged to change your mind about something? Are you being invited to do something more, less or differently?
- If you put into practice what was preached to you, what changes might you see?

What is your next step?

- If you could take one next step in your faith this week, what would it be?
- Create space to connect with and hear from God this week through prayer, listening to music, out in nature, journaling, reading the Bible or whatever is most meaningful for you.
