The Lord's Prayer (all voices together)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever

*Call to Worship

Leader: We as a people gathered here for worship are far removed from the time when the disciples met in the upper room.

People: Blessed are those who have not seen and yet come to believe.

Leader: We have put away our Easter clothes, eaten the chocolate Easter bunnies and eggs, put away the baskets. Must the message of Easter be put away for another year?

People: Blessed are those who have not seen and yet come to believe.

Leader: We still seek the one who offers victory over death whose love that conquers evil.

People: Blessed are those who have not seen and yet come to believe.

Leader: We are, each of us, a twin to Thomas. We want to see to believe, and Jesus still comes and finds us with outstretched hands and says to each of us put your fingers here.

People: We will proclaim the profession of our faith, my Lord and my God. In our doubt we will practice belief.

Leader: Blessed are those who have not seen and yet come to believe.
